Summary from Cookhill Parish Council meeting held Tuesday 10th October 2017.

PARISH COUNCIL UPDATES:

Potholes on Brandheath Lane – Following a visit from the Highways safety officer the potholes in Brandheath Lane have been filled.

Cookhill Playing Field – The new swing and table tennis table cover have been installed and the site is being well used.

Grant Requests – Grant requests were received from St. Paul's Church to help with the repairs currently underway to the roof.

Community Speed Watch – Cookhill is advancing swiftly up the waiting list and will soon be ready to carry out the necessary training for the Safer Road Partnership's Community Speed Watch Scheme. If you would be interested in volunteering to take part in the scheme on Edgioake Lane please contact the clerk on 07584 687283 or info@cookhillparishcouncil.com.

Cookhill Village Hall – The Village Hall are busy fundraising, with their next event coming up at the beginning of November - 'Quiz with a Bang' will take place on Saturday 4th November – Quiz with fireworks & a chilli.

Please contact Eileen Payne on 01527 89225 with details of your team!

Village Flagpole – It was agreed unanimously that a new flagpole would be erected at the Village Hall.

Police & Neighbourhood Watch Reports –

Scam Phone Calls – Reports of bogus Police phone calls where fraudsters pretend to be Police Officers in order to steal bank details, including card numbers and sort codes and PINs. No Police force would ever ask for bank details over the phone and no information of a sensitive nature should be divulged over the phone.

Bogus Emails about unclaimed parcels – Emails are received stating that a parcel of great value has been received but that the recipient must click on the link to activate the delivery. Never click on a link or download anything in an email you believe to be suspicious. Always delete.
