Summary from Cookhill Parish Council meeting held
Tuesday 11th December 2018

PARISH COUNCIL UPDATES:

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

Grant for St. Paul's Church

St. Paul's Church have submitted an application to the Parish Council for assistance with their ongoing project to renovate the stained glass window on the west end of the church.

The Church have already raised a large portion of the estimated project total themselves, via fundraising and donations from the congregation, but are looking for some help from the Parish Council to carry out this urgent section of the renovations.

The Parish Council discussed the proposal and are in favour of granting a fixed sum to the Church to carry out a specified aspect of the project, providing they have the agreement of the parishioners. It was proposed that the remaining funds allocated for grant funding in the 2018-19 budget be used for this purpose.

The Parish Council would welcome your comments on the project, whether you are in support or not, by 8th January 2019.

Comments can be made by contacting the clerk on 07584 687283 or via email info@cookhillparishcouncil.com
